Personal Info.

La paix
On ne gagne pas une guerre en faisant la guerre.
Je l'ai essayé...
Depuis hier tout
Tout les Farfadaa sont activé a rétablir la paix partout.
Je tente personnellement de rétablir la paix avec les frère et soeur dont j'ai moi même rompu les liens.
L'ennemi c'est la haine
Il m'a atteint
Il nous a tous atteint
Et si on le laisse nous diviser
L'ennemi va gagner
Travaillons tous a rétablir la paix en dedans de nous
Et autour de nous
La paix va gagner
Il n'y a qu'une seul autorité ultime chez les Farfadaa !
Le Respaix.
Je sais que je n'est pas été un exemple dernièrement mais je m'excuse.
Je reprend mes bottes
Seulement les miennes
Et vous savez Farfader!
J'nous aime
La paix attire la paix
Ce week-end selon moi il est préférable de rester en paix au Q.G. que d'aller au champ de bataille déjà perturbé de l'intérieur !
Le Noyau vous demandes à tous de porter fièrement vos couleurs mais de les caché sous le manteaux. Ce que vous êtes est dans votre coeur. Il est inutile de s'offrir en spectacle!
La raison exacte vous sera expliqué au meeting Farfadaa de midi
Les présent pourront par la suite informé les absents.
Veuillez prendre note que midi est relatif like Indian time.

INTEL UPDATES

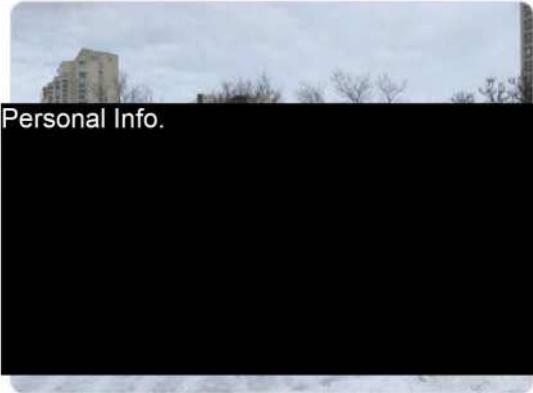

- CIG OSINT identified a Twitter post suggesting that the wooden structure located in Confederation park will be put on wheel so that it is not considered a permanent structure. A video posted on the S.37 shows multiple wheel objects on a table. Truckers/supporters set up the structure as a soup kitchen to feed anyone in the area.

Personal Info.

Update from the shack. Folks down here say authorities told them they can't have a permanent structure.

So, they're adding wheels.

Burgs, soups, pasta, rice and sandwiches expected on the menu when this "community kitchen" goes prime time.

- OPP intelligence advise that hot tubs were observed at Coventry.
- CIG OSINT located several social media posts indicating that doctors and nurses have been advised to avoid wearing anything that would identify them as healthcare workers.

Personal Info.

Toronto police are advising hospital staff not to wear scrubs to work in order to avoid being harassed by trucker protesters. If you are harassing healthcare workers during a pandemic where hospitals are flooded with sick you can unkindly go fuck yourself. Scum of the earth

- CIG OSINT identified several social media posts indicating that a convoy began to arrive on the North side of the Ontario Legislature. Multiple tractors are observed in front of the police barricade.

Personal Info.

#BREAKING The convoy protest has already arrived on the north side of the Ontario Legislature, with a huge gathering of tractors and a few truck cabs already blaring their horns behind a police barricade that includes a bus parked side to side across the road.

04 February 2022 Counter protest called off; organizers cite safety concerns OTTAWA – Organizers behind the call for a counter protest on Saturday have decided to call off the demonstration, instead urging Ottawa residents to focus on supporting each other as neighbours and providing mutual aid. Community organizers in the city last night discussed at length the various safety concerns and threats that this convoy represents to counter demonstrators, and people in the downtown core. With the police noting that convoy participants have made statements about "riotous behaviour, injury, the bringing of arms and weapons into the National Capital Region," organizers of the counter demonstration decided the best thing to do is to call off the counter demonstration to focus on supporting residents at this time.	that by enabling this convoy, they're helping enable the terrorizing of downtown residents—whether that's the loud honking at all hours or the physical assaults, threats and intimidating behaviour—the police have not even done the bare minimum that they can to ticket and start to remove them from our streets," said Josh Catan, an organizer with Reclaim Ottawa. "While the police seem to think that this is about protecting rights of expression, it's important to note that people who support vaccine mandates, people who support frontline workers, people who want to stand up for our community don't feel as if we can enjoy those same rights due to the ongoing occupation of our city by far-right extremists." Catan is calling instead for counter demonstrators to get involved in the community support and mutual aid initiatives that residents are organizing to keep each other safe.	2SLGBTQ+ People of Colour. The Ottawa Convoy Report is offering safe walks and rides for downtown residents. Councilors McKenney and Menard are coordinating safe walk resources for residents in the downtown area. Another group, Centretown Helpers, has emerged to coordinate safe walks via discord. The Ottawa Distress Centre has their Distress and Crisis lines open and are available to chat by text. The Youth Services Bureau crisis line is available 24/7. The LGBT Youth Line is available for chats. "There's a lot more going on already in our city, where residents are finding ways to support each other, and it would be amazing if everyone who wanted to go to the counter-demonstration redirected that energy into these initiatives, whether that's by making donations, volunteering to help people walk around, get groceries and stay safe."
